

John M. McCarthy

Thomas More College of Liberal Arts, Merrimack, NH
johnmc@bc.edu | jmccarthy@thomasmorecollege.edu
(603) 661-1645 (c)

Education:

Doctor of Philosophy (expected), Boston College, 2018

Dissertation: Translation and Commentary of Aristotle's Sophistical Refutations

Director: Gary Gurtler S.J., Associate Professor, Boston College

Master of Arts in Philosophy, Boston College, 2015

Loneragan Fellow, Boston College, 2014-15

Bachelor of Arts, Thomas Aquinas College, 2011

Work Experience:

May 2016 — Present

Thomas More College of Liberal Arts

Instructor

- Professor of Natural Philosophy, Ancient Greek I and II, Euclidean Geometry, Astronomy, Logic, and Folk Music Guild; Directed numerous senior theses and “Junior Projects”

August 2013 — May 2016

Thomas More College of Liberal Arts

Visiting Fellow

- Professor of Euclidean Geometry, Astronomy, Logic, and Music Guild

August 2011 — May 2013

Gregory the Great Academy

Teacher/Head Dorm Father

- Taught Logic, Introduction to Philosophy, Physics, Astronomy, Poetry, and Music; Coached soccer and rugby; Managed dorm father schedules; Set and controlled budget for student contingency fund; Organized and supervised night and weekend activities; Provided everyday oversight, discipline, and counseling

Service:

Member of advisor board for St. Francis of Assisi Parochial School, 2016-2017

Faculty Advisor for Thomas More College's student-run Milk Street Society funded by Intercollegiate Studies Institute, Wilmington, DE

Member of the New Hampshire Astronomical Society

Specializations:

- Aristotelian Logic and Natural Philosophy
- History of Philosophy of Science
- Aquinas's Natural Theology and Epistemology

Areas of Competence:

- Ancient, Medieval, and Early Modern Ethics
- St. Augustine's Cosmology
- Kant

Languages:

- Latin and Ancient Greek